CHARGES RUSSIA WITH PRISON CAMP CRUELTY

War Relief Committee Says 17,000
Out of 80,000 Died.

(By the International News Service.) New York, Oct. 13.—Cruelties that stagger belief, which it is charged were inflicted upon prisoners of war in Russian prison camps, are described in a report made public today by the prisoners of War Relief Committee, whose headquarters are here. The information was gathered through official channels in Berlin and Vienna and also by investigators employed by the North German Gazette. In the single prison camp at Orenburg, Eastern Russia, where Austro-Hungarian captives are confined, 17,000 men out of 80,000 confined there have died from privation, according to a Vienna report. Information alleged to have been gathered by the United States Embassy in Petrograd, and forwarded to Vienna, gave such a tragic impression that a high official of the Austrian government declared that his country could not expect the return of any prisoners taken by the Russians. Prisoners, the report states, are compelled to sleep on wooden benches without even straw. Their bodies are covered with vermin. The camps are swept by epidemics of every kind of sickness.

ADVENTIST CONFERENCE TO LEAVE WASHINGTON

For the first time in thirteen years, the quadrennial session of the general or world conference of Seventh Day Adventists, which is the greatest convention this denomination holds, will be held away from Washington. This decision was made yesterday by executive committees of the general and North American division conferences of Adventists which will continue in session here until October 24. The sessions of 1905, 1909 and 1913 were held in Takoma Park. The next session will be in Los Angeles, Cal.

The Adventists now have missionaries in sixty-seven different countries, and at the coming session practically every one of these will be represented. With the thousands of Adventists residing in Southern California also planning to attend, the coming convention promises to exceed any previous meeting of the kind ever held by the Adventists in the point of numbers.

WILSON TO ADDRESS PARK-VIEW CITIZENS

President Accepts Invitation of Association for December.

John G. McGrath, president of the Park View Citizens' Association, has just announced the receipt of a letter from President Wilson accepting an invitation to address the association at its December meeting. This is said to be the first time a President of the United States has addressed a Washington citizens' association.

The President stated in the letter that he would be unable to take part in the exercises next week commemorative of the completion of the Park View School and the paving of Georgia avenue. Miss Margaret Wilson, the President's daughter, also wired that she would be unable to be in Washington next week.

Justice Siddons, of the District Supreme Court, will deliver the principal address Monday night, when the new schoolhouse will be dedicated. The exercises will be under the direction of the school board. Ernest L. Thurston, superintendent of schools, also will be one of the speakers. The exercises will be conducted by Rev. John Van Schaick, Jr., president of the school board.

CIVIC CLUB LEADER TO SUPPORT WILSON

New York, Oct. 13.—Miss Henrietta Rodman, of New York, has announced herself a supporter of President Wilson. Miss Rodman and her husband, Herman de Frem, organized the Civic Club of New York. She is well known for her work along vocational lines in the public school movement and for equal rights for married women in public service. She says:

"Abolition of poverty and special privilege are questions of the moment now, as was that of slavery in Lincoln's time. I am a Wilson Progressive now, as my father was a Lincoln Republican.

"President Wilson has a constructive international policy, and if in his domestic policy he had failed as notably as he has succeeded I should still have felt it the duty of every clear-thinking man and woman to support him, altogether because of his international policy."

REV. ZIMMERMANN LECTURES.

Delivers Address on "America, the Land of Greatness."

Rev. Albert H. Zimmermann, First Congregational Church, delivered a lecture last night on "America, the Land of Greatness."

Mr. Zimmermann advocated a large army and navy. His talk was illustrated with slides which brought out his points. In speaking of unpreparedness Mr. Zimmermann said that the United States needed an army large enough to protect the homes of our country and a navy strong enough to defend our coasts, and a combined force "sufficient to ever uphold the honor of the flag before all the nations."

"America is the greatest country in the world for natural scenery, wealth and industrial prowess. But the country is greater in her institutions which made men like Lincoln, McKinley, Roosevelt, Taft, Wilson and Hughes."

THE MODEL CLOTHES SHOP
1231 Pennsylvania Avenue

Of all the popular styles brought out by

THE HOUSE OF KUPPENHEIMER

in the last few years, The Beltsac easily leads.

Here's a good clothes idea that "caught on" from the very first. Men found it easy, comfortable, stylish. The belt sets just right, the plaits give added freedom across the back.

Men who drive a motor car tell us that this coat doesn't show the wrinkled appearance a straight back model does after driving, and that they like it because it doesn't pull when swinging the wheel.

We recommend it; and are showing it in a dozen different fabrics.
